The Migration Museum
& DECS Outreach Education present

Unpacking Histories

27th July – 14th August 2009

How are social histories put together? What stories can objects and documents tell?

An investigative multimedia assisted workshop that aims to show how the stories of individual lives fit into the local, national and global mosaic of history. Working like historians, white-gloved participants will unpack, investigate, research and record the lives of several South Australians and their immigration stories. A constructivist 'hands-on' approach to 20th and 21st Century history.

2 hours / Years 6 – 12

Cost: $7.00 per student

Schools deemed disadvantaged: $40 per class
