The Greek Migrant Experience

29th April – 15th May 2008

Greek immigrants began arriving in South Australia as early as 1842. Why did they come here? Where did they settle? What contributions have they made to South Australian society?

View the exhibition Vision, Hope and Life: Greek Migration Stories presented by Organisation of Hellene and Hellene-Cypriot Women of Australia (SA) Inc – OEEGA and explore the immigration and settlement experience from the Greek point of view.

An ideal program for Greek language students.

Years 3 - 12
