

THE BARWELL BOYS

Image credits

Barwell Boys, farm lads who have just arrived on the SS Benalla, 6 Aug 1923.

Courtesy: SA Government Photographic Collection GN03231 (History Trust of SA)

Team of Draught Horses pulling a farm plough, possibly in mining town of Iron Knob on Eyre Peninsula, 1935. Photographer Captain Frank Hurley, taken for 1936 SA Centenary year.

Courtesy: SA Government Photographic Collection, GNO5722 (History Trust of SA)

Barwell Boys relaxing after arrival, 1923. Photograph taken looking west from the second storey of a building situated approximately where the University of Adelaide's physics building now stands. The Migration Museum's two storey building is visible at the rear.

Courtesy: SA Government Photographic Collection, GN03236 (History Trust of SA)

Horace Webb: Working at Loxton, c. 1932. Horace Webb arrived on the SS Barrabool, 1923, apprenticed at Emu Bay.

Courtesy Rosalie Ireland (née Webb)